1. On 29 June 1970, [REDACTED] and myself traveled to [REDACTED] Idaho, to meet with [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. The purpose of the trip was two-fold in that I wanted [REDACTED] to meet [REDACTED] and discuss any unique problems which might arise with regard to the forthcoming residency and divorce of [REDACTED]. Secondly, I wanted to brief [REDACTED] new partner, [REDACTED] who was cleared on 19 May 1970.

2. In the course of our conversations, I asked [REDACTED] if he felt any need for me to have a meeting with the judge of the [REDACTED] Idaho, where the divorce suits are filed. [REDACTED] felt that, to date, his relationships with the judge were adequate to cover any problems which might arise in any of the cases we were interested in. I said we were satisfied to have [REDACTED] use his discretion when he thought it was necessary to discuss our interest in a particular case with the judge. If [REDACTED] had any problems or needed something official in the way of communications or additional personal meetings with the judge, we would be glad to assist him in meeting this requirement.
